

Personalized Treatment Plans

1

- Matches medications to your unique genetic profile.
- It helps identify medicines more likely to work effectively with fewer side effects.

Faster Symptom Relief

2

- Reduces the trial-and-error process of finding the right medication.
- Leads to quicker stabilization of symptoms.

Improved Safety

3

- Identifies potential adverse reactions to certain medications.
- Flags medications that may cause harmful interactions.

Treatment Planning

4

- Increases confidence in the prescribed treatment plan.
- Reduces frustration, leading to better adherence to medication.

Costs Savings

5

- Decreases expenses associated with ineffective medications.
- Avoids unnecessary doctor visits and hospitalizations.

Non-Invasive and Convenient

6

- Simple, painless cheek swab that can be done in-office or at home.
- At-home kits are mailed to you with easy instructions.

Accessible to Everyone

7

- Available even if you're not a current patient of Tranquility Behavioral Health.

Evidence-Based Insights

8

- Backed by clinical research and scientific advancements in pharmacogenetics.
- Helps providers make decisions supported by data and genetics.